ARTICLE I: STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

The purpose of Women Education Leaders in Virginia (“WELV” or the “Corporation”) is to bring together individuals to address issues related primarily to the concerns, interests, advancement, accomplishments, and special contributions of women in or aspiring to educational leadership. To accomplish this purpose WELV engages in conferences and workshops, electronic communication, networking, and research. WELV aims to reach (but is not limited to) women in education, pre-school through university, including faculty, administration, staff and degree candidates.

WELV recognizes the important work already undertaken by organizations such as Virginia Association of School Superintendents, Virginia Association of Supervision and Curriculum Development, Virginia School Boards Association and Virginia’s Schools of Education. Further, WELV intends to cooperate with and build on the strengths of these organizations and their initiatives. As a state-wide organization focused on women, a particular goal of WELV is to support women in all areas of education and to promote and further the participation of women in higher levels of educational administration.

ARTICLE II: MEMBERSHIP

1. Eligibility – Women who are engaged in pre-school through university education as teachers, administrators, staff, researchers, or degree candidates are eligible for membership by completing a membership form and paying annual dues. No individual may be denied membership on the basis of race, national origin, religion, or sexual orientation.
2. Dues – All members are assessed dues on an annual basis. The membership year begins the first of the month immediately following the annual conference and meeting and continues through the subsequent twelve months. Individuals may become members at any point during the membership year and will be assessed the same dues whenever their particular membership commences, except that individuals cannot become members in the 14 days between the record date and the annual conference and meeting. Any individual desiring to become a member between the record date and the annual conference and meeting may attend the annual conference and meeting, but such individual will not be a member of WELV and will not have any membership rights until the new membership year begins.
3. Membership Rights - All members have the right to vote and the right to run for office.
4. Annual Meeting - A meeting of the membership will be held at the annual conference.

5. Special Meeting – The Board of Directors, the President, or one-twentieth of those members entitled to vote at such a meeting may call a special meeting of the members. Only that business described in the notice of a special meeting may be conducted at that special meeting.
6. Record Date – WELV shall make a determination of members 14 days before each annual or special meeting, unless the meeting is to act on an amendment to the articles of incorporation, a plan of merger, a domestication, a proposed sale of all or substantially all of WELV’s assets not in the regular course of its business, or the dissolution of WELV, in which case the record date shall be 30 before the meeting date.
7. Notice of Meeting – WELV shall notify those members entitled to vote at a meeting of the date, time, and place of the meeting. Such notice shall be given for each annual meeting and special meeting. This notice shall be given not less than 10 and not more than 60 days before the meeting date, unless the meeting is to act on an amendment to the articles of incorporation, a plan of merger, a domestication, a proposed sale of all or substantially all of WELV’s assets not in the regular course of its business, or the dissolution of WELV, in which case notice shall be given not less than 25 and not more than 60 days before the meeting date. Notice of a special meeting shall state the purpose, or purposes, for which the meeting is called. Notice may be given by mail, by electronic mail, by facsimile, or by messenger, and notices shall be deemed to have been given by mail when deposited, postage prepaid, in the United States mail; by electronic mail or by facsimile at the time of sending; or by messenger at the time of delivery by the messenger.
8. Waiver of Notice – A member may waive the notice required above by written waiver of notice, signed by the member, or by email, and filed with WELV’s minutes or corporate records, or a member can waive such notice by the member’s attendance at the meeting for which such notice was required.
9. Proxies – Members may vote by proxy. The vote of an effectively appointed proxy may be accepted as that of the person making the appointment, unless that vote is outside of the scope of the proxy’s authority under the proxy’s appointment by the member. An appointment of proxy is effective when a signed appointment, electronic transmission of a signed appointment, or copy or reproduction of the same is received by the Administrative Coordinator, or persons, authorized to tabulate votes in the relevant election. An appointment of proxy is valid for 11 months, unless a longer term is explicitly provided for in the signed appointment form
10. Quorum – Aquorum is defined as 10% of the votes entitled to be cast.

ARTICLE III: BOARD OF DIRECTORS

1. General Powers – The business and affairs of WELV shall be conducted under the direction of its Board of Directors, except as otherwise provided in the Virginia Nonstock Corporation Act, WELV’s Articles of Incorporation, or these Bylaws. The powers of the Board of Directors shall include:
 - A. Establishing the general program and priorities of WELV;
 - B. Ensuring the programs and activities of WELV are evaluated regularly;
 - C. Serving on the Conference Planning Committee;
 - D. Allocating the resources of WELV;

- E. Hiring and terminating the Executive Director, and evaluating the Executive Director's implementation of WELV's programs and management of WELV's overall operations; and
 - F. Forming and overseeing the activities of committees of the Board;
 - G. Ensuring the offices of the organization are filled at all times;
 - H. Other activities as deemed necessary to further the mission of WELV.
2. Duties – The Board of Directors is charged with two primary duties: the Duty of Care and the Duty of Loyalty.
- A. The Duty of Care – requires Board members to act: in good faith; with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances; and in a manner the Director reasonably believes to be in the best interests of WELV.
 - B. The Duty of Loyalty – requires Board members to pursue WELV's best interests. The Duty of Loyalty prohibits a Director from engaging in self-dealing unless there is full disclosure to the Board and the transaction is clearly in WELV's best interest.
 - C. The Duty of Stewardship– requires Board members to defend, protect, and keep the organization true to its mission, faithful to its purpose, and trustworthy to its supporters, and to commit to prudent and judicious management of financial resources.
3. Number – The Board shall consist of officers and regional representatives with no fewer than 8 and no more than 25 total Directors.
4. Composition– The Board is composed of the officers, regional representatives, and other WELV members appointed to serve on the Board.
5. Terms – The terms of office shall commence upon appointment by the Board or election at the next annual meeting.
6. Election of Directors
- A. Nominations – The President shall appoint a Nominating Committee, chaired by the Vice-President, to prepare a slate of Directors to be approved by the full membership each year at the annual meeting. The Nominating Committee will announce, not less than two months prior to the annual meeting, the time period within which they will receive nominations from the membership.
 - B. Voting for Board of Directors – The members of WELV shall elect the Board of Directors (BOD) at the membership's annual meeting from the slate of candidates prepared by the Nominating Committee.
7. Director Orientation – In order to ensure Directors are prepared to serve, an orientation will be provided for each new board member.
8. Resignations – Any Director may resign at any time by filing a written notice of resignation with the President or Secretary of the Corporation. A resignation is effective when the written notice is delivered, unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If the written notice specifies the resignation is effective at a later date, the pending vacancy may be filled before the effective date of the resignation so long as it provides that the successor does not take office until the predecessor-Director's resignation is effective.

9. Removal – Any Director may be removed by a vote of the members entitled to vote for that Director’s election. A Director may only be removed at a meeting called for the purpose of removing her, and may only be removed by such vote as would suffice for her election. An individual may request a hearing as described in the WELV Procedures Manual.
10. Filling Unscheduled Vacancies – In the event a vacancy on the Board of Directors has been created by a Director’s resignation or removal or other reason, the Nominating Committee has the responsibility to recommend a successor Director, and the recommended successor may be elected by a majority vote of the members or of the Directors remaining on the Board
11. Meetings
 - A. Regular Meetings – Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at least quarterly at such time and place as shall be determined by the Board. One meeting shall be designated as the annual meeting.
 - B. Annual Membership Meeting – The annual meeting of the membership shall be in conjunction with WELV’s annual conference. The purpose of the annual meeting shall be to elect Officers and consider other business that may properly be brought before the membership.
 - C. Special Meetings – Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the President or upon written request to the Secretary signed by at least one-fourth of the currently serving Directors. The person or persons calling a special meeting of the Board shall fix the time and place for holding such meeting.
 - D. Notice of Meetings- Each Director shall receive written notice of each regular meeting of the Board at least seven days prior to such meeting and shall receive written notice of each special meeting of the Board at least three days prior to such meeting.
12. Attendance at Meetings- A principal focus of WELV Board meetings is professional development programming, with individuals discussing their particular responsibilities in that planning; therefore, WELV is only fully functional and effective with all Directors attending all meetings. Should a Director have to miss two or more meetings in a given year, the Board reserves the right to raise with that Director the question of stepping down or taking a leave of absence.
13. Manner of Acting – The act of a majority of the Directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors. Each Director shall have one vote.
14. Quorum – A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board.
15. Participation in Meetings by Conference Call or Other Appropriate Technology – The Board may permit any or all Directors to participate in a regular or special meeting by the use of telephonic communication by which all Directors participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting.
