

WOMEN EDUCATION LEADERS IN VIRGINIA

www.welv.org

Virginia Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development Annual Conference

VASCD 2018 ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Women Education Leaders in Virginia (WELV) Presentation

Leadership Mindsets for Today

November 29, 2018 10:35-11:50

Using multiple books as anchors for this session, participants will engage with three women leaders to reflect on the mindsets needed for today's leader. A short presentation and a panel of women leaders will consider the concepts presented in the updated "Multipliers: How the Best Leaders Make Everyone Smarter", the bestselling author, Ori Brafman's new publication, "Radical Inclusion: What the Post-9-11 World Should Have Taught Us About Leadership", and Bill Gates' recommended "must read" book, "Factfulness".

Carol Carter, Ed.D

Superintendent
King and Queen County
WELV Region 3 Representative

Kim Evans, Ed.D.

Superintendent
Greensville-Emporia Public Schools
President-Elect, WELV

Elaine Fogliani, Ph.D.

Executive Director, WELV
Educational Planner/Client Relations
Crabtree, Rohrbaugh & Associates, Architects

Panelists will respond to the questions below:

- 1. What proposition or research presented in the book, "Multipliers: How the Best Leaders Make Everyone Smarter", caused you to reconsider your mindsets as a leader? Was this an affirmation of a mindset you have or did you add to the mindsets you need?
- 2. From your reading, "Radical Inclusion: What the Post-9-11 World Should Have Taught Us About Leadership" and "Factfulness", what were the new mindsets for leadership that emerged?
- 3. What leadership mindsets have you needed most in your role as superintendent?
- 4. What leadership mindset would you like to develop and why?